Recap: Key Findings and Insights

Movies

- In general, Amazon Prime has the most high-quality movies, followed by Netflix and HBO Max.
- Specifically, Amazon Prime is well-known for documentary, history, and independent movies.
- Yet, Netflix is the leading service with stand-up and talk, fantasy, animation, and anime movies.
- HBO Max is popular for its science-fiction movies.

TV Shows

- Netflix has the most high-quality TV series, followed by Hulu, and Amazon Prime.
- Netflix is especially well-rated with its crime and family TV series.
- Hulu has a focus on its TV series and is popular for its reality and anime TV series.

Cost & Benefit

- If you are into well-rated movies, you should subscribe to Amazon Prime.
- TV series lovers should subscribe to Netflix. But it is a tight match among Netflix, Hulu, and Amazon Prime for TV series. Therefore, further checking the count of contents by genres is recommended.
